What is ORCID?

How is ORCID different from other researcher identifiers?

How can ORCID benefit me? Your iD...

- distinguishes you and ensures your research outputs and activities are correctly attributed to you
- reliably and easily connects you with your contributions and affiliations
- reduces form-filling
- improves recognition and discoverability for you and your research outputs
- is interoperable
- is persistent

Stand out in the sea of researchers

The screenshot shows a login interface. At the top, the word "Login" is in red. Below it, a message says "Don't have an account yet? Click here. It only takes a minute to register." There are two input fields: "Username or E-mail" and "Password". Below these is a red "Login" button. To the right of the button is a link "Forgot password?". Below the login section, there is a horizontal line, then the text "OR", and then the text "Login using an external account:" followed by three icons: a green ORCID iD icon, a blue LinkedIn icon, and a blue Facebook icon. A large green arrow points from the text "Sign in where you see the iD logo, for example:" to the ORCID iD icon.
